

Daily Incident Report

Friday, March 11, 2022

Incident reports are posted each regular business day, Monday through Friday, except holidays. These reports are not all-inclusive for cases reported, but only those noted for media interest. To review prior Daily Incident Reports please visit www.sheriff.loudoun.gov/dailycrime To determine your station area, please go to www.sheriff.loudoun.gov/findmystation.

The LCSO also provides an online mapping and analysis service through www.sheriff.loudoun.gov/CityProtect that combines the value of law enforcement data with the ease of use of Google-based mapping and an analytics module. Members of the public can view up-to-date information on nearly all Loudoun County Sheriff's Office calls for service that are relevant to their community.

CRYPTOCURRENCY SCAMS

Scammers are finding new ways to steal your money using cryptocurrency.

- Scammers will promise that you can earn a lot of money in a short time by investing in cryptocurrency.
- Scammers may send an unsolicited email or social media message pretending to be "investment managers." They claim that they will help you grow your money if you let them control your accounts.
- Pretend to be a representative of a cryptocurrency company you are working with. They convince you to provide your account

Beware of claims like:

- You are guaranteed to make money.
- The promise of free money.
- You will double your money.

Call us before you act - we can help you determine if it is a scam.
